

Thomas J. Kedrowski

Senior Vice President
Supply Chain and Operations

Thomas Kedrowski is senior vice president, supply chain and operations for PolyOne Corporation, the world's premier provider of specialty polymer materials, services and solutions. In line with the Operational Excellence pillar of the company's strategic priorities, he has global responsibility for developing and implementing plans and strategies that drive improvement in manufacturing, supply chain, and overall business performance.

Mr. Kedrowski, who joined PolyOne in 2007, is an experienced global leader with a strong background in manufacturing, supply chain strategy and Lean Six Sigma implementation, gained during 24 years with H.B. Fuller Company.

He began his career at H.B. Fuller as a chemist and applications engineer, and advanced to several executive-level operations and business leader positions, both domestically and internationally. He also held both regional and global general manager roles in Asia Pacific and Europe for specialty businesses. In addition, he served as vice president of global operations and Lean Six Sigma deployment champion. His work experience has been equally balanced between commercial and operations roles.

Mr. Kedrowski earned degrees from the University of Minnesota, and Saint John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota. He is a graduate of Leadership Cleveland.
