Wilflex™ Originals # 11 Inspiration - See No Evil

Three wise monkeys teach us to “see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil.” Interpretations of the quote range from the traditional Buddhist teaching that one must not dwell on negative thoughts, to the more recent Western notion that we are eager to turn a blind eye toward things we wish we didn’t see. Nevertheless, these tendencies help to shape our perceptions of the world around us.

Originals #11, See No Evil, captures the reflective quality of the human eye from the vantage point of one coming face-to-face with nature. While on the surface we are transported to the subject’s perspective, the artist takes us deeper with his interpretation of the eye’s inner structure, bringing his vision to life using complex patterns, vivid color and diverse textures.

We hope this design and the artist’s utilization of Wilflex products will help to inspire new ideas for screen printing design.
